Re: International Christian Broadcasting, Inc. et al v. Davidson
Adv. # 8:16-01150

Dear Honorable Judge Scott Clarkson,

I am a pro se defendant and am unsure of the rules of procedure regarding my wish to notify the Court of my decision to withdraw from further participation in this matter. I would like to be respectful of the Court and give notice that I will no longer be appearing or participating in this litigation, and I leave it up to the Court to decide what to do from here. I have been litigating with these Plaintiffs, who are also my family members, for over 6 years now. To be frank, I have been through hell and back with the amount of harassment I have endured. I have had private investigators stalk me, assailants break in to my apartments, process servers harass me at work, and much worse. This has caused me irreparable harm in regards to my emotional and financial well-being. I have lost multiple jobs due to the harassment and vexatious litigation of these Plaintiffs. The cases I have been involved in with these Plaintiffs are listed below just to give the court some clarity on the excessive legal assault I have endured:

1. Redemption Strategies, Inc. v. Michael and Brittany Koper, Orange County Superior Court, California, Case No. 30-2011-00516179
2. Redemption Strategies, Inc. v. Michael and Brittany Koper, United States District Court for the Central District of California, Case No. 8:12-cv-00041

I would like the court to know that I filed for bankruptcy because I literally bankrupted myself trying to fight all of these lawsuits, and cannot afford to continue to fight them. I cannot afford an attorney, I cannot afford the litigation costs, and I cannot continually take time off of work to address these matters on my own, which further puts my current job in jeopardy. I am not an attorney, and I do not have the money, time, energy, or knowledge to represent myself. I am hoping to be able to move on with my life and put these matters to rest, whatever that may mean.

I continue to deny all of their allegations, but I simply cannot afford to fight them any longer financially, emotionally, or with my time.

I am looking for direction from the Court as to how it would like to proceed given my decision to withdraw from further participation in this matter.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Brittany Davidson
